ABOUT ME

I am a computer engineer by training and a freelance translator by passion. I have more than 10 years of experience in translation field. My engineering background and diverse experience coupled with good command over English and Hindi languages and a flair for writing helps me immensely in the software, game and mobile app localization related jobs. I am based out of India. A year spent in Madrid during my stint as software professional intensified my passion for learning different languages and cultures. I consider translation to be a creative and enlightening experience.
