

Curriculum Vitae

Personal Data

Name: Marina Miranda
Literary and Sworn Translator
Montevideo, Uruguay
Mobile: +598 98 677 179
E-mail: marinamir@gmail.com

Work Experience as Translator

2017-2018: Translation into Spanish of Abracadabrantisque, a novel by John M. Keller.

2015 up-to-date: Professor of the Translation II Workshop for the Degree in Translation and Interpretation (English-Spanish) at the School of Humanities and Education Sciences of Universidad de Montevideo, Uruguay.

2014: Assignments for Coursera.

2012 up-to-date: Assignments for Translators Without Borders.

2010: Translations for pharmaceutical company.

2004 up-to-date: Translation into Spanish of military manuals and UN manuals.

2003: Translation into English of a book on Wineries of Uruguay.

2002: Translation into English of a book on Ranches of Uruguay.

2000: Translation into English of a book on the history of the Stock Exchange of Montevideo.

Jul-Dec 1995: Spanish Instructor for the United Nations Peace Corps.

1995 up-to-date: Translation of scientific papers for Dr. Bartolomé Ángel Grillo (Seakrill and Omega-3 – Uruguayan Antarctic Institute).

1991-1992: Translation into Spanish of all operation and maintenance manuals for the "La Tablada" Thermal Power Plant supplied by the General Electric-Techint Consortium in charge of construction.

1986 up-to-date: Freelance translator of official and non-official works.