

Tae Soo Kim

1619 Highland Oaks Dr.
Arcadia, CA 91006
USA
661-316-2800
Taekim771@hotmail.com
Taekim7000@sbcglobal.net

Applying Position: Korean/English translator

Education:

Graduated from UC Berkeley with BA in history in May, 2006
Attended Cypress College, Cypress, CA 1988-1989
Graduated from Garden Grove High School in Garden Grove, CA in June, 1984

Experience:

Freelance translator since 2007, Tae Kim's Translation Service
Tutor at Laney College, Oakland, CA 1990
Reporter for Korea Central Daily News, Los Angeles, CA 1984-1987

Past Translation Projects Include:

Hollywood movie scripts, TV shows, Korean drama scripts.
Chemical, mechanical and consumer product patent papers.
Geology and mineral related government research papers.
Academic papers on scientific research ranging from chemical experiments to mathematical research.
Government documents from recycling material ordinances to science related subjects.
Business documents from multinational corporation research on products to contracts.
Computer related materials from software code translations to new software manuals.
Modern Korean history projects.
Health insurance brochures, documents, related materials.
And many others, too numerous to list all.

Special Skills:

Proficient with MS Word and Excel
Bilingual in Korean and English

Awards, scholarships, volunteers:

Received Cypress Chamber of Commerce Scholarship from Cypress College in 1989

Was on President's Honor List at Cypress College 1988-1989

Volunteered for Salvation Army in 1989

Was on editorial board of a student publication at UC Berkeley in 1989

I have many years of experience in translation. I have done many translation works including movie and TV scripts, websites, IT translations, e-commerce shopping sites, sporting goods websites, electrical work manual, medical, scholarly papers among others. I am a naturalized US citizen, and have been living in US since 1980, when my family immigrated. I'll work hard to make sure your company's needs in translation are completely met.