

English – Greek, Italian– Greek,
French – Greek, Greek - English

Studies

- 1991 – 1998 Translation Studies at the Ionian University, Corfu, Greece
- Specialization:
- Financial/Law translation English → Greek and vice versa
Technical/Medical transl. English → Greek and vice versa.
Financial/Law translation French → Greek and vice versa
Technical/Medical transl. French → Greek and vice versa.
Literary translation English → Greek and vice versa
Literary translation French → Greek and vice versa
- 1996 ERASMUS Scholarship to the University Paul-Valery Montpellier III, France. Specialization on texts concerning the E.U. and other economy/financial-oriented issues. Grade: 1st
- 1996 - 1997 1 semester (out of 2) in the Master's program in translation (Machine Translation and basic hypertext construction) in the University of Manchester (UMIST), England. Grade: 1st and distinction of performance.
- May 1997 Seminar on Anglo-Saxon law and terminology.
- June 1998 Completion of my University studies. Dissertation: translation & commenting on the book The Quest for the Holy Grail, Raven Editions. Grade: 1st.
- 2002 CELI 5 –(Italian Language Certificate, Level 5)

Working Experience:

- 1999 - today Freelance translator (legal, financial, technical & marketing texts)
Translated words: ~ 3.000.000 (12.000 pages/ 250 words)
- 1999 – 2004 Bank Supervisor (Aspis & Proton Bank): Legal & Financial Auditor

Member of the team that translated the EU Technical Standards into Greek for the Hellenic Organization for Standardization (ELOT S.A.).

Official Translations

According to the Presidential Decree 169/17.06.2002 (Official Gazette 156/02.07.2002), translators, graduates of the Ionian University are the only translators having the right to provide official (certified) translations for the public and private authorities in Greece.

