Employment History (work history, academic positions, training, internships):

(a) a translator-cum-editor in Pustaka Pelajar publishing house for more than 10 years, completing more than 30 books, from 2000 to 2016. This experience as a book translator has given me a lot of information, ethics and the real basics of translation knowledge and experience. Subjects are social sciences, humanities, psychology (child education), and education (handbook of qualitative research, handbook of mixed method). Samples of books I have translated can be seen at this link: <https://abyluqman.wordpress.com/>

(b) a co-therapist in a mental clinic “Baitii Jannatii” for about 7 years from 1999 to 2006. This work experience provided me with anything related to psychology and psychiatry, spirituality, personal health in general, in-depth psychology and issues of mental health.

(c) translating a book, “Becoming of a knowledge sharing organization”, in a team of Indonesian linguists. The client is World Bank.

(d) a member of an Indonesian team of localization linguists for one of the biggest social media website on internet. The tasks involved requires transcreating of marketing materials, subtitling videos, translating numerous texts with many subjects and topics. All work is done using Memsources cloud/editor.

Employment History in subtitling (I have done this kind of job for about 5 years from 2012-2017, using Subtitle Workshop)

(d) having done subtitling from Arabic to Indonesian in interactive dialog formats pertaining to women and gender issues [more than 20 episodes of 40 or more minutes each] from 2015-2016;

- (e) having subtitled and transcribed “Jomblo” into English [an Indonesian film featuring youngsters’ life in campus and their camaraderie] in 2017;
 - (f) having subtitled “Wild Things” into Indonesian [an English film featuring the weird and strange aspects of human make-up in their social relationship that make the life full of tragedies. This movie has familiarized me with many English slangs and colloquial words] in February 2017;
 - (g) having subtitled “Secret Window” into Indonesian [an English movie featuring a mysterious writer who has a double personality, kind of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde] in February 2017;
 - (h) having subtitled “Monster House” into Indonesian in February 2017;
 - (i) having subtitled “It Could Happen to You” into Indonesian in March 2017;
 - (j) having subtitled “Spanglish” into Indonesian in March 2017;
 - (k) having subtitled “Amazing Spider Man” in March 2017;
 - (l) having subtitled “Tortured” and “Race the Sun” in April 2017.

Education (University, Graduate School, etc.): Ma’had Ali bin Abi Thalib at Muhammadiyah University of Yogyakarta

Professional Qualifications (dégrées, certification, etc.): (a) associate degree in Arabic education, (b) a participant of Qualitative Research training, (c) a member of Association of Indonesian Translators, and (d) a member of Qualified Translation Center of Yogya (2006-2008).

Computer Skills: Ms Word, Ms Excel, Subtitle Workshop 6.0, Ms. Power Point.
