Other interests

Apart from my professional activity, I pursue various passions, in particular:

- music, playing guitar, piano and singing for 8 years in a duo (LIPKA) for which I also write and compose most of the material, and actively participate in the production and sound mixing. I have also written and produced the debut album of geneva based artist DANITSA.

- painting, drawing, papier-mâché, sewing, cinema, as well as stage performance,

- reading, interested in a wide variety of fields (philosophy, history, classical and modern literature, medicine, natural healing, geography, and others.),

- languages, both through their study, in particular through various language stays - Berlin and New York (several stays of a few months) and through a playful approach (creation of crosswords, anagrams, word games, rebuses, riddles, etc.).

I am fluent in German, French, English and Swiss German.

I have a basic knowledge of both Italian and Spanish and I am currently learning Polish.

- Sport: 16 years of club football, badminton (organisation of an annual tournament), snowboarding, skateboarding, swimming, running and cycling.
