WHERE COMMUNICATION IS IMPORTANT AND SITUATIONS
WHERE TEAMWORK IS ESSENTIAL (FOR EXAMPLE CULTURE AND SPORTS), ETC.

During the last two years I supported two medical students in the experimental implementation and in the writing of their thesis work.

I can manage my research work autonomously under the direction of a tutor.

I can draw a research project besides a scientific article.

I spent the last eight years in research laboratories. This long training taught me several techniques and the ability to collaborate with colleagues and experts working in several research fields.

I attended several scientific meetings and conventions both national and international.

Furthermore I have learnt how to present scientific data and how to write them for publication in English.
