

Julien HAGELSTEIN

30/03/1990

Rue Noirivaux 44/A

4870 Trooz (Belgium)

julien.hagelstein830@gmail.com

+32 497/07.55.89

Translator (EN - ES > FR)

Education

2014: Master's Degree in Translation, University of Liège (ULg), Belgium

2014: Master's Degree in Interpreting, University of Liege (ULg), Belgium

2011: Bachelor's Degree in Modern Languages and Literatures (English-Spanish), ULg
October – December 2010: Erasmus Program, University of Birmingham, UK

Work Experience

As a Translator

- September 2012 —

Translation of press articles, texts and other documents on various topics. Main fields of expertise: European and international politics; foreign trade; literature; promoting Belgium and its assets; sports; tourism; veterinary medicine; etc.

- October 2012 —

Translation Manager of the Young European Federalists' magazine Taurillon.org

- January – March 2014:

Internship at "Guillaume Giraud SPRL" interpreting and translation company, Embourg, Belgium

- March – April 2013:

Online Mentoring with the United Nations Office in New-York, USA

As an interpreter

- September 2012 —

Liaison, consecutive and simultaneous interpreting of conferences and events on various topics.

Main fields of expertise: ecology and environment; ecosocialism; European federalism; European and international politics; foreign trade; land grabs; landscape architecture; LGTB; new technologies; passive houses; sport; theatre; video art; etc.

- January 2014:

Internship at the Council of Europe, Strasbourg, France

- January – February 2013:

Internship at the Copa-Cogeca, Brussels, Belgium

- February 2013:

Internship at the United Nations Office in Vienna, Austria

Additional Information

- Computer skills (Word, Excel, PowerPoint, CRM, ...)
- Driving licence
- 2012: Member of the Steering Committee (Translation and Interpretation)
- 2012: Student Representative at the Councils of the Faculty of Philosophy and Letters, ULg