

+33 (0)6 14 71 15 12

cmilhau@cbm-translations.com

www.cbm-translations.com

linkedin.com/in/cbm-translations

Caroline Milhau, PhD, MSc, Eng

English – French technical translator specialized in Industrial Property (Patents, Trademarks)

SKILLS

Services and languages Translation and proofreading in English – French

Expertise Chemistry, pharmacy, biology, biotechnology, medicine (general), engineering, arms/defense, mechanics (general)

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Since 2017 Translator at CBM translations

2011 – 2016 Translator/patent engineer at Cabinet Chaillot (Colombes, France)

- English to French and French to English translation and proofreading of patent-related documents (patent applications, patents, prior art, office actions, patent litigation documents, WIPO abstracts, etc.); English to French translation and proofreading of legal documents (contracts); development of glossaries; customer feedback management
- Drafting of patent applications; handling of filing, examining, granting and extension procedures of patent applications (FR, EP, US, CA, etc.) and related translation requirements

2007 – 2011 PhD in Chemistry at UCD (University College Dublin, Ireland)

Scientific research; writing/communication/bibliographic research in English; oral and written presentations (thesis, reports, scientific articles, posters, etc.)

EDUCATION

2013 – 2014 CEIPI (Center for International Intellectual Property Studies, Strasbourg, France)
'Patents' degree, accelerated tuition

2007 – 2011 PhD in Chemistry at UCD (University College Dublin, Ireland)

2006 – 2007 Master's degree in "Molecular and Supramolecular Chemistry" at ULP (Louis Pasteur University, Strasbourg, France)

2004 – 2007 ECPM (École Européenne de Chimie, Polymères et Matériaux, Strasbourg, France)
degree in chemical engineering