Other Experiences

Before becoming a full-time teacher and translator, I worked for 19 years in the tourism industry at several firms. Primary responsibilities involved providing travel planning and logistics for individual travelers, both for leisure and business travel, as well as coordinating complex group travel, including convention travel. Additionally, I coordinated events, especially in the medical and energy fields.

- Anticipated and delivered on varied customer needs.
- Consistently met or exceeded customer expectations.
- Routinely provided outstanding problem-solving skills to satisfy customer expectations
- Specialized in customizing travel packages for Americans and Europeans.

Prior to working in the tourism industry, after my graduation as a computer engineer, I worked both in the technological development and support areas of a department store.
